4. Returning Officer

- i. The Returning Officer for the Students' Association shall be an individual appointed by the National Union of Students, Scotland until otherwise determined in line with the Articles.
- ii. The Depute Returning Officer shall be the Chief Executive of the Students' Association. The Chief Executive has the authority to delegate this position to other staff of the Students' Association as required and appropriate. In the absence of a Chief Executive, an appropriate Students' Association manager will act as Depute Returning Officer.
- iii. The Returning Officer will announce the results of the elections after the count has taken place.

5. Administration of elections

- i. Timetables for all elections will be published on the Students' Association website including all key dates at least seven clear days prior to the opening of nominations for each election.
- ii. Candidate packs will be prepared for all positions which will include Role Descriptions for the post, expectations on candidates and office-bearers, remuneration (if applicable) and a copy of the current Election Regulations relating to the particular election.
- iii. Nomination forms for all elections will be available on the Association's website
- iv. The Nomination Period for any sabbatical election shall not be less than twelve clear days and for any other election, not less than seven clear days.

6. Campaigning and Complaints

- i. All candidates and candidate supporters are subject to the Election Regulations in place for the specific election.
- ii. Complaints regarding the conduct of any candidate, campaign or any other issue relating to the conduct of the election should be made using the Elections Complaint Form provided for such complaints on the Students' Association website.
- iii. Complaints will be received by the Depute Returning Officer and will be considered by the Elections Committee, who may ask for further information or evidence from the complainant before making a ruling.
- iv. If a ruling by the Elections Committee results in an updating of the Election Regulations, all candidates will be informed by email of the change at the earliest opportunity.
- v. If a complainant or a Candidate is not content with the ruling of the Elections Committee they may appeal directly to the Returning Officer in writing, detailing the nature of the appeal. Contact details for the Returning Officer will be provided in all correspondence to complainants or affected candidates.

- vi. In considering any appeal, the Returning Officer may require further information from the Complainant, Candidates and witnesses.
- vii. The ruling of the Returning Officer on any matter is final and binding on all parties.
- viii. If a candidate still feels that they have been treated unfairly in the elections process, they may refer to the University's code of practice for information on further redress.

7. Organising the Elections

- i. The Election of all the above positions shall take place in the second term.
- ii. The Returning Officer will circulate guidance on the elections process when nominations open to all student members.

8. Promotion of Elections
